

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers
To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org
To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org
First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Barb	Anderson	AAIC, Inc Architects	Served as LEED Consultant to developer on Icehouse #6 in Downtown St. Louis, an existing building renovation & recipient of a LEED Incentive Grant from AmerenUE // Project Manager for National Great Rivers Research & Education Field Station, which schedule for fall 2009 completion and targeting LEED Gold	LEED Process // Benefits of Sustainable Design // Incorporating Sustainable Elements into Design // Greening the Campus (colleges and universities) // Sustainable Design as an integral part of architecture	Lewis and Clark Community College Greening the Campus - December 2007 // National Great Rivers Research and Education Field Station - Project Presentation to various groups including IL Clean Energy Community Foundation, Corps of Engineers, Nature Conservancy - 2007 & 2008 // Project presentations for AAIC - ongoing		Licensed Architect // LEED AP
Ruben	Aya-Welland	HOK	Animal Nutrition Center at St. Louis Zoo - greener concrete specification, soil strengthening, green roof design	General LEED Core & Shell Construction Practices // Navigating LEED // Building Design Integration & Synergies	Greening the Heartland Conference - June 2008 // Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Sustainable Engineering Class - July 2008 // HOK Interoffice - 2006-present	generally not available during workday	Licensed civil and structural engineer in IL, MO, WA and CA // LEED AP
Cindy	Bambini	3 Degrees	LEED Incentive Grant Program (joint project of USGBC-STL and AmerenUE) // LEED Renewable Energy Credit on Novus, Express Scripts II, Monsanto, Cupples Station and Cottleville City Hall projects	Most interested in speaking to school districts on behalf of USGBC-STL Green Schools Committee	Creve Coeur Chamber of Commerce - July 2008 // EarthWays Center Class - July 2008 // Midwest Society of Professional Engineers - June 2008

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers

To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org

To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org

First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Ralph	Bicknese	Hellmuth & Bicknese Architects	Prime Architect & LEED Consultant on - Bick iBuilding, Monarch FPD House 4 // LEED consultant on SIUE New and Renovated Science Buildings, Nevada Cancer Institute Research Center, NVCI Support Services Building, CCVI Office Building in Las Vegas, Greenspun Media Tenant Finish in Las Vegas and Torrea Aristos Office Building & Hotel in El Salvador	Green Schools (K-12) // municipal and state green legislative efforts // green economic development // general green design and green building // daylighting // benefits of green building // biometric design // passive survivability	Green Schools - Winter Institute (January 2008) // Integrative Building Envelope Design - ASHRAE - April 2008 // Daylighting for LEED - Construction Expo - February 2008		Licensed Architect // LEED AP // principal and co-founder of Hellmuth & Bicknese Architects // Green Schools Advocate for USGBC-STL
Nicholas	Bristow	Clayco	Involved with various LEED NC, CS, and CI projects including: Chevron in Covington, LA / Washington University Danforth Student Center / Novus International / Northpark Business Center / Villa Lighting	Any topic related to LEED for New Construction v 2.2 or LEED 2009-Building Design & Construction	Introduction to Engineering (April 2009) // Retain Design Institute Chapter Meeting (April 2009) // Introduction to Commercial Green Construction (May 2009)		LEED AP
JoAnn	Brookes	HOK	St. Louis Animal Nutrition Center at St. Louis Zoo // Monsanto - Building F // Monsanto Data Center // Centene Plaza // St. Louis Art Museum // University of Missouri Surgery Tower // also "greened" Fox Architects specifications to require only low-VOC paints and adhesives	Intro to LEED // Intro to Green Building // Building Facades // Design Considerations & Approaches	Missouri Economic Development Conference - June 2008 // The Energy Component in Green Building Design (an Energy Action Workshop) - May 2008 // Missouri Society of Professional Engineers Monthly Meeting - April 2008		LEED AP

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers
To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org
To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org
First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Lou	Brouk	Terra-Wise/Sage Homebuilders	Green and sustainable residential renovations projects and new home construction	any	ARMA (Records and Information Management Professionals) of St. Louis - February 2008		LEED AP
Dan	Hellmuth	Hellmuth & Bicknese Architects	Prime Architect - Bick iBuilding (LEED Gold) // LEED Consultant - CitiMortgage Progress Point, Phase II Implementation and 24 LEED Projects including LEED NC, CS and CI // Planning Consultant for Fourth Street Coordinator Sustainable redevelopment plan in DeKalb, IL // Prime Architect - Bowood Farms Nursery, Garden Shop and Cafe // MSD Green Roof Study	LEED NC Process // Sustainable Site & Building Design // LEED EB // Sustainable Community Redevelopment Planning	Missouri Society of Professional Engineers State Conference - June 2008 // HUD, Washington DC - June 2008 // Washington University School of Architecture - June 2008	not available weekends and evenings	LEED AP
Chris	Kerckhoff	CB & E Construction Group	250,000 SF Class A Office Facility in Weldon Springs going for LEED // CB & E founded on principles of sustainability and built the first LEED building in Missouri (Nidus Center)	Making the Business Case for Sustainable Design and Construction // Pragmatic approach to sustainable buildings and building management // "no-brainers" for greening your next project	Presentation to CCIM (commercial real estate organization), St. Louis - April 08		LEED AP

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers
To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org
To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org
First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Michael	Levinson	Energy Solutions, Inc	Comprehensive energy efficiency audits, retrofits, masterplans and incentive applications (government and private) for public and private school districts, universities, government agencies, military facilities, commercial buildings, homes and non-profit institutions. Recent projects include a LEED EB O&M application by the Missouri Botanical Garden, an audit for Webster University and a retrofit and satte loan application for University City School District.	Energy Efficiency // LEED for Schools // LEED for Existing Buildings Operations & Maintanance	EarthWays Center Green Homes Festival - September 2007 // City of Florissant Sustainability Committee - December 2007 // New City School - September 2008
Marc	Lopata	Energy and Environmental Solutions	Directed design and construction of about $700 million in construction about half of which fit high-performance and energy efficient design // Since 1994, involved in over a dozen LEED Projects ranging from LEED EB on 10,000 sf office building to LEED-NC on 9,000,000 sf resort campus of 4 separate LEED Projects	No exclusions	Greening the Heartland June 2008 // Bar Association of Metro St. Louis - April 2008 // St. Louis Academy of Science - October 2007		LEED AP
Jordan	Massey	Massey Modern Design/Buildin g - Modern Development & Reclamation, Inc	Current project - Genesis Home is designed to achieve LEED Platinum	LEED NC v 2.2, site development, water management	College Debate - 1998

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers
To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org
To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org
First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Marjorie	Melton		Currently involved with two LEED registered projects - South Side and North Side Recreation Complexes // In planning stages for third projects - major renovation of 1520 Market Street	green building regulations for local governments // green building construction practices // basic LEED information // City of St. Louis green alley project	Green Alley Presentation // City of St. Louis Green Ordinance // US Conference of Mayors Climate Protection Initiative		Professional Engineer
Tim	Montgomery	TMA Architects	30 plus years green building/architecture experience // LEED Platinum project - William A Kerr Foundation Headquarters	Energy // Anything related to LEED // Architecture and Design	Greening the Heartland, June 2008 // Sierra Club, March 2008 // St. Louis Green Drinks, February 2008		AIA, LEED AP

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers

To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org

To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
------------	-----------	---------	-----------------------------------	--------	---------------------	--------------	-------------------

Jean	Ponzi	EarthWays Center of Missouri Botanical Garden	LEED-H and general green home building // day job is an educator for Missouri Botanical Garden - teaches "Greening your new home - no greenwashing allowed" // USGBC-STL Green Homes Advocate // conversant with LEED NC and EB and serve on LEED EB project team for an MBG project // Also very familiar with waste management, indoor air and environmental quality	LEED-H and general green homebuilding // Re-Green Guidelines and green home improvement // LEED EB in general & team approach to LEED EB certification & documentation process // anything related to indoor air or environmental quality or recycling and reducing solid waste	Producer and host of "Earthworms" weekly environmental radio talk show on KDHX-St. Louis (FM 88) - 1988 - Present // Ameren Diversity Day, Green Living informal presentations - July 2008 // Green Homes Presentation to St. Louis Association of Realtors - February 2008	Strongly prefer weekday presentation opportunities
------	-------	---	--	---	---	--	--

Richard	Rielly	Boa Construction Company	Assisted Habitat for Humanity - St. Louis with LEED Documentation for 27 homes. Involved with an adaptive reuse of a commercial building into a church. Boa is working on several other projects in preconstruction that are LEED Registered	Sustainable Construction // LEED for Homes // LEED for Existing Buildings Operations & Maintenance	Design Build Institute of America Chapter Meeting - August 2008 // Architectural Woodwork Institute Chapter Meeting - September 2008 // Green Homes & Renewable Energy Festival - September 2008		LEED AP in Existing Buildings Track
---------	--------	--------------------------	--	--	--	--	-------------------------------------

Nancy	Rodney	Rosemann & Associates, PC	MacKenzie Place at Deer Creek - completed early design with LEED Certified or Silver goal for Senior Living Center // Argyle Building for the Indigo Hotel - starting with goal of LEED Gold historic renovation	any	Missouri Association Homes Aging Conference - 2002, 2003, 2005, 2008		AIA, LEED AP
-------	--------	---------------------------	--	-----	--	--	--------------

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers
To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org
To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org
First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Thomas H.	Schultz	Laclede Gas Company	Serve on USGBC-STL Board of Directors // Served on planning for Greening the Heartland 2008 // Organized conference in May 2008 on Fueling a Cleaner Environment: The Energy Component in Green Building Design (an Energy Action Workshop)	Promotion of USGBC LEED Rating System & Initiatives // Impact and Importance of LEED Energy & Atmosphere Category // Aesthetic benefits of Green Building Design	St. Louis Neighborhoods Conference - March 2007 // Southern Gas Association Marketing Conference - March 2007 // Southern Gas Association Executive Conference - September 2007
Lois	Sechrist	Sechrist Sustainable Consulting	Project manager on Enterprise Fleet Services LEED CI Silver project, Interiors Project Manager on Express Scripts Headquarters LEED NC Certified. Serve on USGBC-STL Green Schools Committee and University City's Green Practices Committee	Commercial Interiors // Sustainability 101 // Green Schools	Presentaion to CI Select Sales Team - Fall 2008 // Studio Guest Lecturer at Washington University Sam Fox Scholl of Design // Presentation to University of Missouri Emerging Green Builders - November 2008
Cristina	Spicer	Greensfelder, Hemker, Gale, P.C.		Legal issues in green building // Legislative initiatives and current legislation in the contest of sustainability and green building	Law School Clinic, Spring 2007 // Law School Legal Research & Writing Panel, Fall 2007		practice Real Estate law // involved in green team at Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, PC

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers

To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org

To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org

First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Gary	Steps	Butterfly Energy Works, LLC	Butterfly Energy Works Helps people incorporate sustainable design practices // personal home is showcase of technologies including GridPoint, solar, double-pane windows, ground source heat pump, Energy Star Appliances, insulation, etc	Can speak confidently on most topics related to sustainable design, LEED and green building // Strong points are home & small business energy efficiency and global issues	Skandalaris Center for Entrepreneurial Studies at Washington University - August 2008 // Webster Groves Chamber of Commerce - July 2008 // The Green Team, St. Louis Science Center - July 2008
Jay	Swoboda	EcoUrban	Eco Urban LEED-H Platinum Home	residential and mixed use development // LEED-H // as real estate broker also able to discuss issues related to environmentally conscious homes & benefits to sellers and buyers // green lending & development financing related to affordable green projects	Diversity Arts Project - July 2008 // Greening the Heartland 2008 // Leadership through Service - August 2007

USGBC-St. Louis Regional Chapter Speakers Bureau Volunteers
To request speaker - E-mail date & topic of speaking engagement and top three speaker choices to Emily Andrews - usgbc-stl@mobot.org
To learn more about USGBC-STL activities visit www.usgbc-stl.org
First Name	Last Name	Company	Green Building Project Experience	Topics	Speaking Experience	Availability	Other Information
Lucy	Williams	SPACE, LLC	Worked on 5 LEED registered projects and completed and submitted comprehensive documentation to the USGBC for four projects, two of which have received LEED Silver Certification and two of which are LEED Certified.	green building and sustainable design techniques // integrated and collaborative design // Achieving LEED Certification	Greening the Heartland - June 2008 // Sustainable Design Course at St. Louis Community College Meramec - Fall 2008		AIA, LEED AP